

Twas the night before Christmas!

And all through the house, were post it notes with edges chewed by a mouse!
Notes to remind me of last minute gifts, make sure you have something to not cause a rift!
Now some of my friends bake and have yummies for me,
but I don't even have time to trim the tree!
So at my front door my MK lady comes, with ideas and gifts for all of my chums!
There are mugs filled with cocoa and hand cream to heal!
Mascara to make lashes mink like to the feel,
Zen like lotions to keep all my friends calm.
Glosses for shine and even lip balm.
So don't fret the small stuff, help is in sight!
Call your MK consultant and you'll have a good night.
