

Teacher's Aid Bag

from Kathy Watkins (Lisa Ann Harmon unit)

Have a friend who works in a school take the bag to school and pass it around to fellow teachers and aids. (This could also be used for nurses/doctor's office staff, if you change the poem.)

In a pretty gift bag put lipstick samples, chocolate, fragrance samples, beauty books, Satin Hands sampler, entry forms for drawing for full-size Satin Hands and attach the following poem:

*When your day's been filled with stress, and you've had all you can take,
Just grab ahold of "Teacher's Aid" and take a little break.
Find a quiet corner and take a breath or two
And open up the "Teacher's Aid" and see what's there for you.
What's this? A treat of chocolate! Oh no, I shouldn't, I'm on a diet.
One little piece won't hurt you, so go ahead and try it.
That fragrance looks intriguing, whatever could it be?
Why not spray a little on and enjoy this luxury.
Lipstick samples, take one home, try out the latest look.
Wondering what's new this season? Check out this beauty book.
Now with this little vinyl bag, make your pampering complete.
If you follow the instructions enclosed, Satin Hands will be your treat.
I hope you've enjoyed this break, but now you must take heed.
It's time to pass the bag on to a colleague who's in need.
But wait, the fun's not over, you can win a special prize.
Fill out an entry form and you could receive a Satin Hands, full size.
Be open to receiving, for as Mary Kay taught me,
If you believe, then you'll achieve. Don't you all agree?*

Note: Once you've enjoyed this bag, please pass it along to a colleague. Once everyone has had a chance to enjoy it, please return this bag to (person's name).
